NEW Orange Core Value: RESPECT

Like the other values, respect is more caught than taught. Our kids learn to respect us and others when they see us offering respectful actions, words, and attitudes. What's your family learning from you?

What is ORANGE?

See what happens when the church (Yellow) and the home (Red) partner together to instill spiritual truths in children/teens

Memorial Day Thank You

With gratefulness we remember those who sacrificed their lives so we could worship freely in this country. We offer sympathies to those who have lost family members in this ongoing fight for freedom. Above all, we thank Jesus who died for our spiritual freedom.

Kentucky Team 2011 Update – Finally the team slots are all full, and what a team it is. I am excited to be a small part of leading this team on the journey God has planned for us. I know many of you wish you could be going with us but schedules would not allow it. As with all mission trips we have needs. First and foremost we covet your prayers. Please pray as we continue to prepare and then for the actual week of the trip. June 19th – 26th. Please pray for safe travel, team unity and most importantly that the children of the Lost Creek area come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. We would also ask that you prayerfully consider a financial donation. I know you all give to many causes, so it is never easy to ask. But with gas prices as they are we could use the support. I know the team would appreciate any support you could give. Thanks for all you do and God Bless you for your support!

June Compassion Corner – June 5th, featuring book bags/laptop bags, lotions, bracelets, and always fair trade coffee and chocolates.
